In the light of the prevailing circumstances, yet witnessing the grace in the field of education, that despite the gradual unveiling of challenges continues to flare its humble mission of contributing to 'Learning'. I welcome all our readers to connect with us through this new phase of a virtual station of the newsletter editorials.

I would like to begin with the forgotten yet important aspect of our lives today 'Honesty'. It is the Principle which we have to follow in our life irrespective of any kind of situation. Honesty is the essential character trait that every individual should possess. The possession of this trait is very important in one's life.

If one speaks the truth he does not have to remember what we said. The truth hurts a little while, but a lie hurts forever. An honest person shows good behaviour, follows rules, maintains discipline & is punctual. The honest policy prevents corruption & promotes authenticity. It is a sign of bravery & it improves relationships between people. Moreover, it gives peace of mind.

Honesty is the light of hope and the ultimate solution for various problems. It is easy to advise others, to be honest, but it is difficult to follow ourselves.

But let us all try to be honest irrespective of the situation. From the desk of the Principal...

Teacher Talks

Focused and consistent effort done with careful concentration and responsibility is known as 'diligence'. It is a steady, earnest, and energetic effort towards doing a job efficiently. It is a learned skill.

“Diligence is a great teacher”

It teaches you how to be successful in life. It is needed in all spheres of life. Diligence is a virtue and the blessings of this quality are that efforts are duly acknowledged, which leads you to success.

Success is not accidental and a diligent person should:

Have a clear vision; Plan in advance; Get out of excuses; Have the courage to pursue your dreams. You have to put time and effort so as to handle the tough phases of life which will make the task completion smooth. Hence to be successful you need to practice diligence.

A diligent employee is an asset to the organization, leading you towards excellence & boost in career development.

I would like to sum up with the proverb: “Diligence is the mother of good luck.”
